

CENTRE FOR WOMEN, PEACE
+ SECURITY

Women, Peace and Security Post-2015 Concepts, Criticisms and Challenges

A two day workshop at the Centre for Women, Peace and Security
London School of Economics and Political Science

Tower 2, Room 9.04
Entrance from Clements Inn
London, UK
WC2A 2AE

9-10 March 2016

Generously supported by:

LSE Centre for Women, Peace and Security
British International Studies Association Gendering IR Working Group
UNSW Australia

British International
Studies Association

UNSW
A U S T R A L I A

Day One: Wednesday 9th March

09.30-10.00	Arrival and registration
10.00-10.30	Welcome Professor Christine Chinkin (LSE Centre for Women, Peace and Security)
10.30-11.30	Panel: Thinking Through Women, Peace and Security Chair: Laura J. Shepherd (UNSW and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Laura McLeod (Manchester), 'Knowing Gender and the WPS Resolutions'• Claire Duncanson (Edinburgh), 'Tackling Neoliberal Post-War Reconstruction Models: The Post-2015 Agenda for Women, Peace and Security Advocates'• Gina Heathcote (SOAS), 'Making Security Council Resolutions Count'
11.30-13.00	Roundtable: Constraints on Women, Peace and Security Chair: Paul Kirby (Sussex and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Anna Miles (DFID)• Kristin Cordell (USAID)• Barbara King (Australian Government)• Tatiana Waisberg (ESDHC, Brazil)• Rita Lopedia (Bradford)
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.30	Panel: Pushing the Boundaries of Women, Peace and Security Chair: Paul Kirby (Sussex and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Jennifer Thomson (QMUL) and Claire Pearson (Ulster), 'Reproductive Rights in the Women, Peace and Security Agenda'• Harriet Gray (Gothenburg), 'Intimate Partner Violence and WPS'• Helen Basini and Caitlin Ryan (Limerick), 'Local/International Hybridity in Post-Conflict Implementation'• Megan Bastick (Edinburgh), '(Im)Possibilities of Feminist Warfighting? Military Responses to Sexual Violence in Conflict'
15.30-16.00	Coffee
16.00-17.30	Keynote: Anything Can Happen: Mapping Challenges and Opportunities in the Post- 2015 Women, Peace and Security Agenda Professor Fionnuala Ni Aolain (Minnesota and Ulster) Chair: Laura J. Shepherd (UNSW and LSE)
17.30-18.30	Reception Women, Peace and Equality Exhibition LSE Library
19.00	Dinner Tas Restaurant 22 Bloomsbury Street, London, WC1B 3QJ

Day Two: Thursday 10th March

09.00-09.30	Arrival and registration
09.30-10.30	Keynote: The Global Study on the Implementation of Resolution 1325 Nahla Valji (UN Women) Chair: Paul Kirby (Sussex and LSE)
10.30-11.30	Panel: The Architecture of Women, Peace and Security Chair: Paul Kirby (Sussex and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dina Hossein (SOAS), 'National Advocates and WPS in the Middle East'• Katelyn Jones (Wisconsin-Madison), 'The UNSC and WPS Deliberations'• Katrina Lee-Koo (Monash), 'Exploring Deliberative Approaches to Civil Society Monitoring of Government NAP Implementation: An Australian Case Study'
11.30-12.00	Coffee
12.00-13.30	Panel: Women, Peace and Security in Context Chair: Laura J. Shepherd (UNSW and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Maria de Almagro Iniesta (Vesalius) 'Local-Transnational Civil Society and 1325 Implementation in Burundi and Liberia'• Emily Kenney (UN Women), 'Truth Commissions and Engagement with Women in Kenya, Liberia, Sierra Leone, South Africa and Timor Leste'• Katharine Wright (Surrey), 'NATO and Women, Peace and Security'• Anna Moller-Loswick (Saferworld), 'South Africa as a WPS Actor'
13.30-14.30	Lunch
14.30-15.30	Panel: National Action Plans Chair: Paul Kirby (Sussex and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Lydia Stone (SDD) 'NAP Evaluation and Implementation of UNSCR 1325 in Conflict Settings'• Anna Kwakkenbos and Nikki de Zwann (CARE NL) 'Perspectives on Networks and Roles of Dutch Civil Society: Experiences After Two NAPs and Beyond'• Carrie Reiling (UC Irvine), 'Civil Society and NAP Development in Cote d'Ivoire'
15.30-16.00	Coffee
16.00-17.30	Roundtable: #1325at25? The Next Decade of Women, Peace and Security Chair: Laura J. Shepherd (UNSW and LSE) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Paul Kirby (Sussex and LSE)• Soumita Basu (South Asian University)• Hannah Bond (GAPS UK)• Louise Allen (NGO Working Group on WPS)
17.30	Close

List of Participants

Nadine Adam	University of Halle-Wittenberg
Louise Allen	NGO Working Group on Women, Peace and Security
Karen Barnes Robinson	Independent
Helen Basini	University of Limerick
Megan Bastick	University of Edinburgh
Soumita Basu	South Asian University
Hannah Bond	Gender Action for Peace and Security (GAPS) UK
Christine Chinkin	LSE Centre for Women, Peace and Security
Kristen Cordell	USAID
Maria Martin de Almagro Iniesta	Vesalius College, Belgium
Nikki de Zwann	CARE Netherlands and WO-MEN
Claire Duncanson	University of Edinburgh
Zoe Gillard	LSE Centre for Women, Peace and Security
Harriet Gray	University of Gothenburg
Gina Heathcote	School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS)
Marsha Henry	LSE Centre for Women, Peace and Security
Dina Hussein	School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS)
Ruth Jacobson	Independent
Katelyn Jones	University of Wisconsin-Madison
Midori Kasai	School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS)
Emily Kenney	UN Women
Barbara King	Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Australia
Helen Kinsella	University of Wisconsin-Madison
Paul Kirby	University of Sussex and LSE
Jeta Krasniqi	Office of the President of Kosovo
Jana Krause	Kings College, London
Anne Kwakkenbos	CARE Netherlands and WO-MEN
Katrina Lee-Koo	Monash University
Rita Lopedia	University of Bradford and EVE
Laura McLeod	University of Manchester
Anna Miles	Department for International Development
Anna Moller-Loswick	Saferworld
Colonel Dave Neal	NATO
Fionnuala Ni Aolain	University of Minnesota and University of Ulster
Claire Pierson	University of Ulster
Carrie Reiling	University of California at Irvine
Jagoda Rosul-Gajic	Bundeswehr University Munich
Caitlin Ryan	University of Limerick
Laura J. Shepherd	University of New South Wales and LSE
Lydia Stone	Social Development Direct
Laura Sulin	University of Coventry
Jennifer Thomson	Queen Mary, University of London
Nahla Valji	UN Women
Captain Liz Van Heusden	US Military Police
Dominique Vidale-Plaza	MONUSCO
Tatiana Waisberg	Escola Superior Dom Helder Cãmara, Brazil
Radha Wickremasinghe	Sigrid Rausing Trust
Katharine Wright	University of Surrey
Nina Wustemann	Independent