

National Action Plans (NAPs) on Women, Peace and Security

Date: 11-12 May 2016

Location: National University of Ireland, Phelan room

The Centre for Trust, Peace and Social Relations (CTPSR - Coventry University) and the Institute of British and Irish Studies (IBIS- University College Dublin), will convene a two-day expert Advanced Research Workshop on 'National Action Plans (NAPs) on Women, Peace and Security' in Dublin, Ireland on 11 and 12 May 2016 supported by North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO)'s Science for Peace and Security Programme (SPS). For more information on the programme, please visit <http://www.nato.int/science>

The workshop brings together representatives from international organisations, practitioners, policy makers and academic experts on women, peace and security to create a platform for sharing best practices in the development, implementation and collaborations on NAPs.
